SUPPORT a Staff Member, CHANGE a life who can CHANGE another's

New Life's Beginnings

New Life Foundation in Moshi, Tanzania, East Africa, was established as a Christian boarding school in 2001 by Pastor Glorious and Josephine Shoo. The school began with an initial student body of 14 children and now serves approximately 400 students who are loved, educated, and cared for by the NLF teachers and staff on a 24/7 basis.

The school opens its doors to the poorest children in Tanzania. Over 70% of its students cannot afford their local state school fees due to a lack of family income. New Life Foundation's mission is to serve at least 70% of its students through sponsorship and donations allowing it to offer an excellent holistic education to the children without a fee to their families. NLF provides an excellent Christian based education, spiritual discipleship, food, medical care, housing, and care from loving teachers, staff, and caregivers.

NLF has 4 schools on different sites surrounding the Moshi area, Nursery, Primary, Elementary, and High School. The students are not only hard working and studious, resulting in excellent pass rates on their government exams, they also reach out to their local community with a practical outworking of their vibrant faith and joy in Christ. Families who cannot pay for the education are encouraged to contribute something towards their children's education. While it may be just one sack of corn per term or some coal for cooking, this ensures the family maintains their self-esteem and investment in their child's education. The balance of the cost is met by sponsorship where individuals can bless these children by supporting them, their teachers, staff, and caregivers financially; giving them the future they were born to live.

New Life International Foundation for Children USA (NLIF)

NLIF, a US non-profit organization, which along with similar organizations from New Zealand and Norway, provides New Life Foundation the support necessary to operate the boarding school. NLIF is a 501(3) (c) tax-exempt organization formed in 2004 and directed by a Board of Directors of 9 individuals. NLIF helps identify and encourage individuals and churches to partner with the sponsorship of students, staff members, and teachers funding the costs for food, medical care, education, lodging for students, and salaries for staff.

Sponsorship for staff seeks to raise funds to cover the salaries of teachers and staff. All gifts are tax deductible with a tax receipt being provided each year.

Staff Sponsorship Program Details

The staff sponsorship program supports New Life's mission of giving hope to children through education. The high quality education needed to help these children break the cycle of poverty depends on passionate, selfless teachers and staff. The staff at New Life dedicate their lives to providing the education these children need to succeed in life. By sponsoring a staff member you are impacting not just one child, but every student that teacher, cook, or janitor serves. New Life's mission is to serve children in a Christ centered way; that mission cannot be met without supporting the staff as much as the children themselves.

Staff Sponsorship: Special Gifts

We kindly ask that packages for birthdays or holidays NOT be sent to the school. Rather, send a small monetary gift of no more than $25.00 to the above US address clearly marked what special occasion the monies should be used for. We will send the special gift for your staff member/teacher in the next wire for that month.

Staff Sponsorship: Communication

We encourage sponsors to have a regular written communication with their staff member/teacher. By sending letters or cards to us at the US address or via email we share these electronically with New Life Foundation who will deliver them to the correct person/s. Communication can be made through the Director of Staff Sponsorship, Laura Davis, at the following email address: staffsponsorship@newlifeif.org.

Staff Sponsorship: Prayer

Lastly, sponsors are encouraged to regularly pray for their staff member/teacher and consider the opportunity to visit them as part of a short-term mission team. Such a trip will be a blessing to you and a great encouragement to the staff but certainly not a requirement of sponsorship. If you would like to join us, let us know and we will coordinate the trip.

Thank you for partnering in this important ministry. May God bless you!
